Through the Gospels

A 52-Week Bible Reading Plan for Younger Readers

By

Derek Renshaw

Introduction

This Bible reading plan is written with the intention of giving young people a guide to read through the four Gospels in a year. This will be accomplished by, on average, reading 10-12 verses each day. Every passage is assigned to a specific day of the week and should be checked off when finished. To promote interest and motivation, a fill-in-the-blank question follows each day's reading. The answers to the questions are hidden in a word search puzzle each week. Each week also includes a star placeholder for parents to put a sticker when the week's reading is completed. Parents are encouraged to check and discuss answers with their child and sign each page to record the child's progress. May this tool be a blessing to you as parents as you try to instill a daily habit of Bible reading in your young children.
